Discussion Questions: Week 3 – Spiritual Warfare

1. How important is it for us to know that Jesus has already won the ultimate victory?

What would change if we did not know this?

How can we act differently because of this truth?

2. If we are fighting a spiritual battle, does this mean we don't respond or do anything when we are physically attacked, or taken to court, or someone writes nasty things about us on the internet?

Should we fight back, and if so, how should we do this?

3. Is there such a thing as absolute truth and if so, how do we know what it is?

If so, how can we live in a world where this notion is often rejected?

4. Read Galatians 5:22. To what extent can we view the fruit of the Spirit as being spiritual weapons?
