Discussion Questions: Week 5 – Living for Jesus

1. Why is it important to recognise that although we are saved by grace, we need to continue being aware of our potential for sinfulness?
2. If we are honest with ourselves, many of the things we are asked to do (and not do) to live for Jesus are incredibly difficult, or impossible to do. Why do you think this is?
3. What practical things can you do to ‘prefer others’ either at home or at church?
4. How do you identify gossip? When you do, what strategies do you use to stop the gossiping conversation?
5. What have you already got in your hand – or in other words, where are you already placed or what are you already able to do that you could see as an opportunity for you to live for Jesus?
6. After looking at this week’s topic, are there any areas in your life that you feel need improvement for you to live for Jesus more effectively?
